

GIVE THE GIFT OF YOUR FAMILY STORY

Museum offers workshop for kids to create family story books as holiday gifts

CHARLOTTE, N.C., Nov. 22, 2019 – Kids can create a one-of-a-kind gift for loved ones this holiday season and learn how to tell their own family's story at a special workshop at The Charlotte Museum of History on Saturday, Dec. 14.

Designed for kids ages 5 to 12, the Hands on History workshop will show children how to interview their loved ones to collect family stories and how to assemble their own family story book. The workshop costs $5 and includes the supplies to create a story book.

Staff and volunteers from The Charlotte Museum of History and the Olde Mecklenburg Genealogical Society will lead the workshop. The Genealogical Society's Family Research Library will be open for adults who want to take a deeper dive into discovering their family's past.

How to Go

The Hands on History workshop is Saturday, Dec. 14, from 2-3:30 p.m. at The Charlotte Museum of History, 3500 Shamrock Drive. Online registration at charlottemuseum.org is requested but not required.

About The Charlotte Museum of History

The Charlotte Museum of History engages a broad audience in the history of the Charlotte region through the stories of its people, places and events to promote dialogue and historical perspective. The museum is the steward of the 1774 Alexander Rock House and home site, a site listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the oldest home in Mecklenburg County. To learn more, visit charlottemuseum.org and follow the museum on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

###